Donation Guidelines

Charity Storage accepts new or gently used items, in exchange for a Charitable Donation Receipt. Donated items are placed in a secured, designated Charity Storage unit at your local storage facility. These units are auctioned off onsite, online with www.StorageTreasures.com or any other online auction platform to raise funds for charities throughout the United States. Charity Storage distributes proceeds as follows...

- 60% to a charity chosen by the storage facility
- 20% to Kure It Cancer Research
- 10% to the Self Storage Foundation Scholarship Program
- 10% is retained by Charity Storage to offset administrative costs

Over 1,200 storage facilities participate in the Charity Storage Giving Back Program and there are over 300 qualified charities enrolled as potential beneficiaries of Charity Storage Unit Auctions.

The following items are most suitable for Charity Storage Auctions, though the final decision rests with facility management.

- Vehicles
- Furniture
- Toys
- Tools
- Sports equipment
- Art and décor
- Holiday décor
- Records, CDs, DVDs, books
- Working electronics
- Clean clothing
- Baby items
- Exercise equipment
- Luggage
- Appliances
- Household items
- Office equipment
- Hobby supplies
- Crafts and sewing
- Instruments
- Camping equipment
- Gardening supplies
- Pet supplies
- Medical equipment

For the safety of our auction buyers and facility management, the following items cannot be accepted as donations

- Old mattresses
- Pornography of any type
- Guns or weapons of any type
- Drugs or drug paraphernalia
- Any flammable, hazardous or toxic material
- Animals
- Old tires
- Perishable food items
- Alcohol or tobacco products
- Dirty clothing or items
- Anything that is in not working, or is not in sellable condition

Store managers reserve the right to refuse items not suitable for a charity auction. This allows for a maximum benefit to the supported charities. Thank you for your understanding.
